I feel like I gained new knowledge and experience as an educator and as a parent. • I look forward to taking full advantage of more of your services in the future. • My kid's teacher wants me to give other parents the resources from P2P next school year. I used to hear about P2P but had no clue how much I can learn and the resources that's available to Georgians...Keep up the great work! • I ask Parent to Parent to complete trainings for our parents every year with Head Start and Early Head Start. I get great answers for our parents from the trainers at P2P. • We moved and I was able to use the information that P2P staff shared with me to communicate more effectively with my son's new school. I was definitely more prepared and understood what to say because of the resources that were shared with me.
